Dear Dr. Viorica DESELNICU, Editor-in-chief of Leather and footwear journal

Herewith we attach the manuscript to be submitted in leather footwear journal. However, we are confused about the format of the required letters, because in instructions for authors are declared using Times New Roman letters, but in the paper template use calibri letter. However, we are ready to fix the appropriate commands from the editor.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely yours,
R. Lukas Satrio Ari Wibowo

Dear R.L.M Satrio Ari Wibowo,

Please find below comments from reviewers regarding your manuscript.

The paper deals with an insignificant resource in the leather industry, which is however important in the area where it originated from. The aim of the study is preservation. In this operation salt (NaCl) is replaced with potassium chloride, which has been already approached, in order to improve quality.

Given the favourable review, the article is accepted for publishing in issue 2 of 2018.
